JACK JOHNSON SIGNS TO FIGHT LANGFORD

Two Colored Rivals Will Meet in London if Champion

PARIS, May 24.-Jack Johnson has started serious training at Luna Park for his fight with Frank Moran, and big rowds are going daily to see him work. He has five sparring partners, each one boxing three rounds with him. He new looks like the Johnson of the old days, although his weight is 225 pounds, but he says he will enter the ring at 210.

Moran has also commenced real training in the country, where he is doing road work and sparring with Tom Kennedy, the former amateur heavyweight champion, and Willie Lewis.

Moran is supremely confident of wir-ing the fight with a knockout. Johnson this week signed an agree-ment with Richard Kieln, provided he beats Moran, to fight Sam Langford at London in September or October.
